LOUISVILLE, KY., January 21, 1861. Fellow. Workmen: You were called upon through the public prints of the last week assemble in mass convention for the purpose of nominating a suitable person to represent you in the Legislature. As a new ers has been inaugurated, whereby it was intended that the producing classes (as they are called, and miscalled, I think, for I contend that under this free government men should not be classed, all white men being equal), should be fully represented in the legislative halls of the country, it was determined, and I believe fully understood, that none but a working man would be acceptable to the convention; and with this view the call was addressed to the "work. ing men and merchants," whose interests are understood, by all well informed persons, to be identical. No party was menioned, as the men who were prominent in the movement were of all political complexions-men who, representing the bone and aside all party predilections and unite in one common cause, their country's good; their only platform, the preservation of the

LETTER FROM HON. A. P. HOVEY-A BORDER

LOUISVILLE, KY., Jan. 20, 1861 Gentlemen: Hon, Alvin P. Hovey, of Mt. Vernon, Indiana, a distinguished Douglas Democrat, is for a Border Convention, made up of men chosen directly and deliberately by the people themselves, of every central State, from Missouri to Delaware, and from New Jersey to Iowa, and of every other State whose people please to be represented therein. He calls Mr. Crittenden's plan just, conservative and wise, and he likes Mr. Douglas' too. He would have both plans and any others that are not "ultimatums," and are liked by the people of any of these States, submitted to a Border Convention thus composed. He believes, as do that a mass gathering of the people of the heart and center, will save the whole country; that they, by their united voice and oint action, can bar off aggressions from either extreme, and also soon reconcile and harmonize even the extremes. Judge H.'s views, besides the foregoing, are presented in his following letter to me, of the 16th : "A separation of the slave from the free States, would sever the arteries through which the life-blood of our commerce and prosperity flows. The great Northwest, without the free and full use of all the streams that water the Ohio and Mississip pi valleys, would wither like a sensitive plant torn from its roots and cast upon the burning sands. Separate the slave from the free States, and have peace and prosperity in either? As well might we attempt to sever a human body at the waist and the arteries to preserve life in the dismembered parts. No, the destiny of this nation is one. United, it may and will be, the pole-star of freedom; but dissevered, a hissing and a by-word to the nations of the earth. The French Revolution would be but a faint daguerrectype of the devastation and death that would stalk through this land. Well might the immortal Jefferson exclaim, "what a bediamite is man!"

"We seem determined, like our first parents, to partake of the apple of discord and bring sin and death into our glorious Republic. And for what? A mere bubble of an abstraction, all turning on the question. Where shall slavery go? As though the laws of commerce, of profit and loss, did not answer that question as imperatively as the laws of nature do when tell us where water will flow-that it will find its level. The proudest republic of ancient days lost its glory and power by intestine wars brought on by the slavery question, and the same foolish tragedy is about to be re-enacted here. May God and man both conspire to avert a separation of our States!

Indiana is strongly attached to the Union, and, in my opinion, will suffer much to preserve it. I cannot answer as to what her Republican politicisms will do. her Republican politicians will do, who seem to love their party better than their country, but I feel assured that our people will do all that Union loving and patriotic men can do to avert the threatened calamity. Punch is suggested by the abolition of pass-port laws for Englishmen entering France. Punch styles his picture "A Sensible Move," and depicts John Bull in traveling dress carpet bag in hand, met on the quay of Bou logne by Louis Napoleon, who advanced smiling and presenting a door-key labeled France, and remarks: "Thre M'sicur Sool! No more nonsense about passports. Here's a latch-key, and come and go when you like!" Speaking of passports it is said that our Minister at Paris has frequested Louis Napoleon to grant the freedom to Americans which he has been pleased to show to Englishmen.

I am a candidate for the Legislature. In the Seventh and Eighth wards, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the improvements and discoveries of the day, and to call the attention of its readers to all such as will be interesting and useful to them. In all such cases its conductors should feel as strictly bound in honor to speak in a candid and truthful manner as if conversing with an intimate friend. We have heretofore recommended Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Sirup for children teething, and we now take occasion to repeat, that we believe it is of more importance to mothers and their children than any other discovery made by the profession in the last hundred years. A very large per centage of children annually die during the process of teething, and a very much larger number of those who survive are greatly debilitated or incapacitated both for study and labor. Now, we appeal with perfect confidence to thousands of mothers who will read this article, to corroborate our statement, when we say that no such fatal consequences as those we have alluded to ever occur from teething, when Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Sirup is used We are pleased to know that thousands of ladies have acted upon our suggestion, and have thanked us for it. Still there are many thousands of mothers who read our paper, who, from prejudice against the flood of worthless nostrums that deluge the country, or from neglect, have not availed them selves of the benefits of this most invaluable remedy. To such we wish to saythis Sirup is the result of thirty years' experience of one of the best female physicians the world ever produced; and is just the remedy needed by every mother who has a child teething. It softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays all pain and spasmodic action, corrects acidity of the mach, and regulates the bowels. Moreover, we assure every mother it is perfectly safe-no possible harm can come of its use, according to the directions which accompany each bottle. We speak thus confidently, from the fact that very many of our most valued friends have made use of it for years, and we have witnessed the most happy results from its use in hundreds of cases If you never before had faith in a female physician, our word for it, you will have, after using the Soothing Sirup. Try it. Twenty-five cents will purchase a bottle. islature, it is unwise, inexpedient, uncon-stitutional in character for this General as well as the rich.—New York Ladice

DR. RICHARDSON'S BITTERS .- In our columns may be found an advertisement of Sherry Wine Bitters, prepared by Dr. S. O. After some discussion had, both upon the esolution and the substitute, the whole are, as said to be, undoubtedly composed of valuable and purely vegetable matter, and we can speak highly of their renovating and invigorating effects upon the system. Fish. We have a good opinion of the bitters, as they are not a quack nostrum, but discovered, prepared, and vended by a regular physician, a gradute of the college of our own State, and who has said but little in the those who try them to judge themselves. For the diseases that many are liable to in JAVA COFFEE -90 MATS FINE OLD JAVA COFFEE the spring and summer, such as debility, dyspepsy, bilious and nervous complaints, we do not hesitate to say that these bitters will be found a safe, agreeable and effectual H. restorative. As good health is one of the greatest of earthly blessings, we would early advise those laboring under such diseases to make a trial of Dr. Richardson's much good, as we are confident in many cases they have. Vegetables and vegetable medicines are unquestionably the most congenial to the human system.

The old Latin poet said that woman 'was the sweet assuagement" for the cares of man; but in our day we have an allpowerful talisman for the assuagement of care, broken spirits, prostrated energies, and debilitating influences of both sexes. This article is Wright's Rejuvenating Elixir. Marvel not when we tell you that it is no vain word we utter; this Elixir will revitalize the disorganized functions and prostrated energies of the human body; it winds, it will sooth the irritable disposition; it will effectually remove dyspepsy, gloominess, and mental hallucination; it is simple but effective in its operation-has brought sleep and rest to many a weary soul.
